INTERNATIONAL WOMEN’S CLUB OF SOFIA

24TH ANNUAL CHARITY BAZAAR

Inter Expo Center
December 2 2018
Greetings dear friends and supporters,

I would like to start by wishing you a happy and prosperous 2019! May all your endeavours be crowned with success!

Last year had a great and meaningful ending because of the positive IWC Bazaar. I’m extremely happy by the smooth execution and fantastic outcome of the 24th IWC Annual Charity bazaar. Once again thorough joint efforts we managed to raise more funds than previous years, meaning that the support and donations for the most needy and significant Bulgarian charity projects sponsored by the IWC will spread to many more worthy causes in 2019.

Media reflection shows that the IWC Bazaar has become a landmark annual event in Sofia and as the first big activity for December in the capital’s cultural calendar it kick-starts the festive season. My sincere appreciation goes to all of you standing here tonight, because your valuable support and participation are the key element that makes the Bazaar happen every year.

This year we had participation by 60 countries. Sadly we said goodbye to Sudan, they were a favourite stall among the visitors, however we extend a big welcome to the newcomers – The Vatican, Monaco and Guatemala. The event was attended by 10,000 people and TOGETHER we raised 383,525 leva (as of January 17th, 2019).

Finally I am proud to share with you some important news. The first one is that according to recent research on fund-raising among the female charity organisations around the Globe, the IWC ranks at the top. The IWC-Sofia is the only woman’s organisation in the World that raises such an significant amount of money (nearly 200,000 EUR) for charity in a single day! For this reason we would like to share this success with you, as this achievement is a result of your outstanding physical, material or financial contribution.

Which brings me to my second news – that starting from today the IWC would be presenting it’s Annual Contribution Awards to it’s Bazaar supporters during this Thank you cocktail every year. The awards will be given out in 2 categories. The first one is to the top 3 stalls for raising the most money on Bazaar day! The second one goes to the top 3 sponsors for gifting the highest amount of financial donation. This Award recognition is our way to express gratitude towards those of you with the biggest hearts!

And the final news is that our hard working organisation has added a second fundraising event to it’s calendar. This year we - the IWC celebrate our 30th Anniversary, to mark the big occasion a wonderful Gala Dinner and Dance is planned for the beginning of June 2019. You are all invited, so watch out for the details, get your ball gowns, bow ties and dancing shoes ready for the most exciting and vibrant evening of the summer!

I thank you all once again for standing beside the IWC, your contributions help fulfill our goal to support the Bulgarian people in need. I look forward to our new endeavours TOGETHER!

Best wishes,

Dear friends:

We hope that thinking of the 24th Annual Charity Bazaar brings you warm memories of good feeling, hard work and above all, friendship. Of ten thousand-plus friends, working, laughing, communicating in 70 different languages, and enjoying the holidays together in support of Bulgaria’s most vulnerable.

First, we would like to thank the 20 hard-working members of our bazaar team. We could not have succeeded without their mix of hard-won experience and fresh energy and enthusiasm. On the experience side, Angelina Alexieva, our stallholder coordinator—supported by Anne Bang and Vessy Azar—juggled 60 countries’ requests to fit everyone into a seemingly large—but always too small—4,900 square meters space. Svetlana Yanakieva (supported by MC Martina Mihailova and Tatyana Milanova-Kasimova) put together our amazing entertainment program—including professional musicians and Bulgarian stars who donated their time to support our cause. (Thank you Ustata, Poli, Vessy, Desy, Atanas, Mehehel).

Elisaveta Petrusheva coordinated with the wonderful folks at Sofia Municipality, assisted with public relations, and persuaded renowned jazz trumpeter Mikhail Yossifov to compose a promotional jingle (Thank You Mishol). On the enthusiasm side, thanks to our energetic sponsor team Diana Michaels-Christopher, Gigi Balagot, Stacy Hauck and Kat Stoianov—guided by words of wisdom from VP Maya Metodieva—and of course to our stallholders—for convincing 448 sponsors to contribute to the bazaar. And thanks to the phenomenal organizational skills of Veneta Pissarska for collecting and managing those 448 logos and to our untriring graphic designer Anton Hristov of Vezni, who worked nights and weekends to prepare the banners (as well as this brochure)! VP Maya’s North Pole connections brought us our Santa, whose true identity is (shh) Dragomir Krasimirov Ivanov. Mariya Tsacheva of the Chavdar’s Provence Bakery contributed breads and so much more. Lori Pinkston worked with the U.S. Embassy regional security team, Ivo Nedelykov and our longtime partners at Force Delta, Inter-Expo Center for their ongoing support for this event, and our deep, deep gratitude goes to the Inter-Expo Manager par excellence Milena Varzanovtseva.

Our deep, deep gratitude to the Polish, Romanian and Japanese Embassies. Bringing the stallholders together in one room, special thanks to the Polish, Romanian and Japanese Embassies. Enjoy the following pages, and we look forward to seeing you for the 25th Anniversary Bazaar.

With gratitude

For the Future, the Bulgarian Interior Ministry and Sofia Police to keep all our bazaar-goers safe. Thank you all for working together seamlessly!

Nancy Smith (supported by Dominique Velociter) coordinated the donated skills and effort of 112 volunteers—of these, a particular shout-out goes to Elder Morgan Lynch and the missionaries of the Latter Day Saints Church, who toiled in the cold beginning Thursdays to assemble the wooden houses of our Christmas market, and still had enough energy to entertain bazaar-goers with their cards. Lily Kisiova coordinated the work of our amazing videographers—thanks so much to Stefan Nikolov and Krasimir Lobodov of Full Frame for promoting and chronicling this event—and our press conference hosted by the Czech Centre (Thank You Ambassador Strauch!). Sisila Mahboud and Sasha Sampaio decked the halls with lovely decorations. Vessy Azar found us four meticulous cleaning ladies—Leftera Yordanova Borcheva, Rostsa Vanchova Valkova, Pavlina Zacharias Grigorova and Blagoyka Ivanova Yadkova—who helped us keep the halls looking lovely. Treasurer Dessislava Ivanova and President Albena Jones organized our first ever credit card sales—thanks so much to Iliya Vatafov of Unicredit Bulbank for all his support—and stayed at the bazaar till the last stotinki were counted at 23:00 Sunday night. Our tremendous gratitude to Toli Castello and Mihaela Dobre, coordinators of the 21st, 22nd and 23rd annual bazaars, for your words of wisdom and comprehensive computer files. And none of this would be possible without IWC’s fantastic office staff, bazaar veteran Office Manager/Tombola Stallholder Zarina Benoun-Tako and newly baptized Office Associate/website manager par excellence Milena Varzanovtseva.

Our deep, deep gratitude goes to the Inter-Expo Center for their ongoing support for this event, and particularly to Margarita Vasileva for her limitless energy and for keeping us on track and to Desislava Hanalampieva for designing the halls and stalls. We have a steadfast partner in Sofia Municipality and Mayor Yordanka Fandakova, thank you for the opportunity to advertise on the Metro and trams, for the Sofia Brass Orchestra, for the parking spaces, and for the wooden market stalls from Pasari Yug. The bazaar as we know it would be impossible without our partners from M3 Communications, especially Maxim Bezar and Yanitsa Barneva. We are amazed by the skill and speed with which Anna Maria Hinova and her colleagues at Ticketportal handled the thousands of guests generated by M3’s publicity campaign. Nikolay Kanev, Emil Aleksov and the other production wizards from Nu Boyana Film Studios made our Christmas Market possible by building us a custom tent in just three days. Thanks to long-time partners Stefan Dimitrov of Allied Pickfords/Matrix Placement for taking care of our transport needs and Mariana Petkova of EcoPack for making the bazaar greener. Todor Balchev of new partner EkoToi Event Support deserves a shout for sticking around all day Sunday to handle our changing fencing needs. Thanks to the Metropolitan Hotel for today’s reception and the immensely popular cookie decorating workshop. We hope to build on our partnerships with the Bulgarian Chamber of Commerce and Industry and the Council of Women in Business in Bulgaria for future bazaars.

Finaly, thanks so much to our stallholders: 60 countries, 82 stalls, over 1100 volunteers! Your hard work, organization and creativity is what brings the world to the Inter-Expo Center, and keep the thousands of visitors coming, year after year. And for helping us bring the stallholders together in one room, special thanks to the Polish, Romanian and Japanese Embassies. Enjoy the following pages, and we look forward to seeing you for the 25th Anniversary Bazaar.

From the Bazaar Co-Coordinators
Dear Friends,

It was an honor to be a part of the 24th Annual IWC charity Bazaar.

It was especially satisfying to see overwhelming success of this year’s event which was the result of the hard work of so many selfless volunteers! A large part of the Bazaar’s success is also owed to the country stallholders and the dedicated IWC board. I would like to thank my Treasury team: Ivan Ivanov, Maria Todorova, Hong Bing, Maria Ilieva, Angelina Lyakova, Maya Alexandrova, Paromita Sanatani. I personally appreciate your gift of time, energy, and enthusiasm as we filled out receipts and contracts, counted, sorted, and bundled all money collected – rising over 383,000 LEVA for many Bulgarian charities.

Cheers to the start of a happy and healthy 2019!

Best wishes,

Dear Sponsors, Ambassadors, Supporters, Volunteers, Friends,

Thank You for your participation for 24th Annual Charity Bazaar organized by the International Women’s Club of Sofia. Our bazaar is biggest and well known charity event of the year in Sofia and the biggest charity event in the Balkans.

So many people helped this event to happen. It would have been impossible without the dedication and commitment of the IWC office staff, the Bazaar co-coordinator Nicole Simmons. Greatest thanks to all of you who did a great job: the Bazaar team, the IWC executive board, together with all our volunteers, supporters and the generosity of all of you - our sponsors and partners, embassies and ambassadors who continue to promote our cause to the international and Bulgarian communities of Sofia.

Thank you for all your efforts and for everything you do, for helping us continuously to increase the amount of donation, to make a difference in lives in people in needs and to caring a positive attitude within everyone.

I wish you a Happy and Prosperous 2019 year and hopefully will work with all of you on the next --25th-- Charity Bazaar on December 1st 2019.

With gratitude,

24th Annual Charity Bazaar
SUPPORTERS

The IWC Annual Charity Bazaar presents us with a day of fun and entertainment and we hope that everyone enjoyed visiting all the different stalls at the bazaar. One of the main and very important aims of the IWC Bazaar is that it also serves as the principal source of funding for the IWC’s selected charity projects each year. Thanks to the generous support of our embassies, donor community, as well as local and foreign businesses, the IWC community is able to raise funds to help different projects for the ones in need in Bulgaria.

The tradition of fundraising started many years ago for the IWC community. The first IWC organized charity fundraising on a major scale was held in 1995 and the money collected was for the ‘Tsaritsa Yoana’ Children’s cancer hospital. Since then the charity activities and fundraising of the club have been growing and getting stronger. In 2018 our club supported 24 different charity organizations in Bulgaria by distributing more than 210,000 Bulgarian leva to help these organizations implement their projects.

Through its efforts at the Bazaar, the IWC community helps different vulnerable communities in Bulgaria – orphans, women in need, refugees, disabled children and adults, elderly people, abandoned children, and many more in different parts of Bulgaria – Varna, Sofia, Rakitovo, Plovdiv and other areas of the country. Thank you to everyone who was part of this year’s IWC Bazaar and contributed with time, effort, and funds!

Our slogan for the Bazaar was “The world comes to you” and through our charities we will be able to give something back from the world to the ones in need in Bulgaria.

We have opened our Call for Grants for 2019 and hope to help many different organizations with the funds raised at the IWC Bazaar 2018.

The application deadline has been extended to Sunday, February 10, 2019. The Call for Proposals and application form are available on our website at the following link: https://iwc-sofia.org/call-proposals-small-grants-2019/. For 2019, grant funding will be provided under the following priority categories:

• Early childhood development
• Gender equality
• Innovation in education
• Climate change and wildlife
• Culture, arts and sports

ContourGlobal Maritsa East 3 is the second largest thermal power plant in Bulgaria operating on lignite coal solely extracted locally in the Maritsa East basin. As a result of the large-scale plant rehabilitation and modernization project — the first major investment project in the energy sector in South East Europe, financed without state guarantees — ContourGlobal Maritsa East 3 TPP is the first thermal lignite coal-fired power plant on the Balkan Peninsula, which is fully compliant with the highest European health and safety and environmental standards. With an installed capacity of 908 MW, the power plant generates 10% of the annual electricity production in Bulgaria. In this way ContourGlobal Maritsa East 3 contributes to ensuring the energy security and independence of the country by supplying clean and reliable energy at a competitive price using local resources and providing quality employment for the people in the region.

Through its “Beyond Energy” long-term Social Investment Program, the company, as a responsible corporate citizen, also invests in developing and improving the standard of living of the local community by supporting projects in the fields of education, culture, sport, healthcare, ecology and preservation of local traditions.

Algeria has taken part in almost all annual editions of the Charity Bazaar since its beginning in the late 1990s. To us as Algerians, the bazaar is a valuable occasion to showcase our country’s culture and traditions but it is also much more than this – a helping hand to those in need in a friendly country.

We would like to thank our Sponsors and all volunteers who again contributed to the success of the Belgian Stand.

Our special thanks this year are extended to the employees of the National Revenue Agency Headquarters who collected 145 books for IWC Book Stall. Donating a book you love is a special moment of sharing ideas, positive feelings and friendliness.

We at “The Blind Spot” stall are very honored that we’ve been part of the Bulgarian Stall of the International Charity Bazaar 2018 in IEC Sofia, organized by IWC-Sofia. We’re the 3 most successful organizations that work with blind and visually impaired people in the city of Sofia - Synergia Foundation, Stanimira Chocolate House and The Dark Restaurant Tenebris and we offered hand made high quality chocolate, special degustation catering pieces and on site short massage demonstrations. Thank you for your hospitality and hope to make it again in 2019!

For 20 years, Lebanon has participated in the IWC Charity Bazaar. We are very glad to see that every year our stall expands wider and wider and has caught much attention from the visitors. At our stall, you can find the famous Lebanese foods such as tabbouleh, hummus, shawarma, falafel and many more. We also offer sweets such as baklava, kenafe, katayef… and some Lebanese Artisanat. We also handle an outside stall which offers different varieties of freshly baked Lebanese “saj” bread. As entertainment, you can also find a tombola with many precious and interesting gifts. We could not have done it without the positive energy of our 50 volunteers and the generous donations of our sponsors.

Thank you all for coming and participating at our stall and, we will see you next year!”
